

Remarks

The above amendment is being made in order to cross reference the related application and incorporate its teachings by reference.

The amendment is further made in order to place the claims into proper form for U.S. prosecution and to eliminate the multiple dependency contained in claim 3.

Applicant respectfully submits that this CIP application is being filed in an attempt to accelerate prosecution of the application. Applicant further submits that she does not agree with the Examiner's rejections based on 35 USC 112, first paragraph, and Applicant maintains her position that the parent application is enabling.

Respectfully submitted,

LORUSSO & LOUD
